

at the time of his death?

A I don't see much about that in here.

Q Let me show you the original. Does this describe the property? I hand you the original deed from Thomas and others to your husband. Does that describe the property that your husband owned at the time of his death?

A Well, it has to. It doesn't say anything in here much except the ground.

Q Well that is all it would. It doesn't say anything about the house. A. Well, that's all right.

Q That is a certified copy of it? A. Yes.

(Certified copy marked Ex. 1 offered in evidence)

Q The property described in Exhibit 1 is the property your husband owned at the time of his death?

A Yes. I don't just understand it. It is just Greek to me.

Q Well, it is the deed your husband received from Thomas?

A Yes.

Q That is the only deed he received for the lot?

A That's all.

Q Mrs. Bishop, on the 19th day of November you entered into a contract with John E. Knill and Evelyn R. Knill, his wife, did you not? A. Yes.

Q For the sale of this property?

A I don't know what date it is.

Q In behalf of you and your daughter? A. Yes.

Q Will you look at this paper writing marked Exhibit 2 and state whether or not that is the contract?

A This is the contract. No doubt about that.

Q Now Mrs. Bishop, what is the consideration for this property? What are you selling it for? A. $2100.

Q Why are you trying to sell the property?

A Well, I owe quite a good bit on the place; owe $740-some dollars on the place and it is in need of repair, and I felt it
